Please read all your policy documents carefully to understand the cover you have bought, together with the restrictions and exclusions that may apply.

Any leaflets or similar literature you receive about this insurance do not form part of your policy.

You have the right to cancel any part of your policy at any time during the term of your cover. Please see the relevant section in this Policy Booklet for further details on how to cancel and the terms that apply.

In return for your paying and us receiving and accepting your premium (including Insurance Premium Tax), we will provide home insurance cover under the terms of your policy during the period of cover shown in your Schedule.

Helpful hints on how you can protect your family and your home

Any loss or damage to your family or home causes a great deal of distress.

Every year insurance companies pay out millions of pounds for incidents that happen in and around our homes, such as fires, storm damage, floods, escape of water, burst pipes or burglary and vandalism.

We have put together some helpful tips, which may help you reduce the risk of such events happening to you and your family:

Fire

- Fit smoke alarms on each level of your home. Keep them free from dust and test them once a month. Make sure that you change the batteries once a year.
- Have a fire action plan so that everyone in your home knows how to escape if there is a fire e.g. where the door and window key(s) are kept.
- Take extra care in the kitchen - accidents while cooking account for over half of fires in homes. If cooking with hot oil, consider buying a deep-fat fryer which is controlled by a thermostat (if you don't already have one) and never leave young children alone in the kitchen.
- Never leave lit candles in rooms that nobody is in or in rooms where children are on their own. Make sure candles are in secure holders on a surface that does not burn and are away from any materials that could burn.
- Make sure cigarettes are stubbed out properly, disposed of carefully and never smoke in bed.
- Don't overload electrical sockets with numerous appliances coming from one socket.
- Always switch off the TV and other electrical appliances. Don't leave them on standby. If going on holiday unplug them from the mains.
- Always use a suitable fireguard on an open fire and make sure that your chimneys are swept once a year.

For further information please visit www.fireservice.co.uk or www.firekills.gov.uk.

Theft

- Make sure that the security devices to all your external doors and windows are adequate and, if you have a door lock near to the glass, that the door is fitted with toughened glass. If in doubt, speak to the Crime Prevention Officer at your local Police station who will advise you.
- Whenever you leave the property unoccupied, even for a short trip to the corner shops, make sure that the windows are shut and locked and that the mortice lock is applied.
- If you are going on holiday, always ask a member of the family, a friend or a trusted neighbour to keep an eye on the property and collect the mail. Remember to cancel the milk and papers.
- Invest in some timer switches which can be programmed to turn lights on and off in different rooms and even turn on the radio.
- Never leave keys near the front door letterbox. Thieves could steal the keys without entering your home and take the car or gain entry to your home.

Burst Pipes

- Make sure that any water pipes and tanks have adequate lagging and are properly insulated, especially those located in the loft or outside.
- When going away in the winter time keep your central heating on a low setting i.e. 10 degrees centigrade and leave the loft hatch slightly ajar to allow the warm air to circulate.

- If you do not want to leave the heating on then make sure that you drain the central heating system down (water tanks, radiators and pipes) and turn off the water supply at the mains.

Leaks

- Once a year check the radiator valves to ensure they are not leaking.
- Always make sure that your gutters are repaired if damaged, as this may cause water to enter your home over a period of time. You should also clear the gutters of leaves and moss before the winter sets in.
- Look out for patches of damp, mildew, mould or blistering of paint. These are the tell-tale signs of gradual leaks.
- Always make sure that your washing appliances are fitted correctly and check them regularly.
- Periodically check that your overflows work on toilets, water tanks and central heating header tanks.
- Regularly test the valves operated by ball cocks to ensure that the valves close and the ball sits on the water surface at the correct level.
- If you are in doubt and can see water dripping or escaping from the overflow pipe, contact a plumber. Your policy will not cover you for the maintenance, only for the damage caused.

General conditions which apply to Parts A to D

Making a claim

You must tell us as soon as possible about any event which may result in a claim under this policy. Do not admit responsibility or make an offer or promise to pay a claim against you without our permission in writing.

Tell the police as soon as possible about:

- all incidents of accidental loss, theft, attempted theft or vandalism, loss, damage or injury caused by malicious people.

We can do the following:

- defend or settle any legal action in your name, or in the name of any other person insured by this policy
- recover any payment we make under the policy to anyone else at our own expense and for our own benefit and we can do it in your name, or in the name of any other person insured by this policy
- ask you and any other person insured by this policy for all the information, documentation and help we need to deal with and investigate your claim.

Your duty of care

You must keep your property in a good state of repair. An insurance policy does not cover the cost of maintaining your property. You must do all that you reasonably can to prevent accidents, loss or damage.

Salvage

We can enter any building where there has been loss or damage and deal with any salvage in a reasonable manner. However, you cannot just abandon property for us to deal with.

Your duty of disclosure

You have a duty to tell us as soon as possible about any change in the information you give us, including the sums insured and about any other new facts we should take into account when providing you with insurance, such as:

- if the address of your main residence changes
- if you let your home out or you accept a lodger to live with you
- if any work is being done to your home that is not routine maintenance or decoration
- if your home is used for business purposes or is a holiday home
- if any member of your household is prosecuted for, or convicted of, any offence (except motoring offences).

Please note that the above list does not include all the changes that you must tell us about. If you are not sure whether a change is relevant, please tell us anyway. Once you have told us, we may increase the premium, apply terms, restrict cover or even decline to continue cover.

If you do not tell us, your contract may be invalid and we may reject or reduce any claim you make, or even treat you as being uninsured.

We can change the terms of your policy at any time if we find out about something that you should have told us about which may affect the cover provided by your policy.

Sending us required information

You must send us every claim form, writ, summons, legal document or other letter about the claim as soon as you get it.

Fraud

We will not pay any claim made under this policy if you or anyone acting for you knows it is dishonest or exaggerated in any way. If this happens, we will also cancel all cover immediately and are entitled to tell the police of any such dishonest claim.

Other insurances

If you make a claim under this policy and you were covered for the same loss, damage, or liability by any other insurance, we will only pay our share of the claim.

Cancelling your policy

- a) If you are dissatisfied with the cover provided by your policy, you have 14 days to cancel from the date you receive your documents if you are a new customer, or from your renewal date if you are an existing customer. As long as no incidents have arisen which could result in a claim under your policy, we will refund the premium you have paid. If any incidents have arisen, we will refund the premium you have paid less a pro-rata charge for the time you have been on cover. If you do not exercise your right to cancel during the 14 day period, your policy will continue as normal.
- b) If you decide to cancel after the initial 14 day period, you must contact us before the cancellation date either in writing or by telephone. Should you wish to cancel your policy on that same day, you must contact us by telephone.
- c) We have the right to cancel your policy at any time by giving you seven days notice in writing. We will send our letter to the latest address we have for you.
- d) If you are paying by instalments and you miss a payment, we may cancel your policy. We will give you seven days notice in writing before we do this as set out in paragraph (c) above. You will still have to pay any outstanding premium and any administration fees due to us and we may take any outstanding premium and any administration fees due to us from any claim payment we make to you.

If you decide to cancel your policy after the initial 14 day period, we will refund the part of your premium which you have not yet used less an administration fee to take account of our costs in providing your policy. The fees are detailed in your Schedule. If the amount of premium you have paid and not yet used is less than the administration fee, you must pay us the difference. If a claim has been made, we will cancel your cover but will not refund any of your premium and if you are paying by instalments, you must still pay us the balance of your full annual premium.

If you or we cancel your home insurance policy at any time, we will automatically cancel any family legal protection, home emergency and pest cover you purchased with it.

If you or we cancel the policy after the initial 14 day period, no refund will be made in respect of the family legal protection, home emergency or pest cover you purchased with it and you will still need to pay the full annual premium for these services if you have not already done so.

If you or we cancel the family legal protection, home emergency or pest cover you purchased with your policy after the 14 day initial period, but your home insurance policy continues, there will be no refund for these additional services and you will still need to pay the full annual premium for those you purchased if you have not already done so.

Changes to your policy

If you change your policy details or cover at any time during the cover period, we may charge an administration fee. The fees are detailed in your Schedule.

Family legal protection

The Sheilas' Wheels Family Legal Protection policy is underwritten by DAS Legal Expenses Insurance Company Limited.

This part of your policy only applies if you have chosen this cover and this is shown in your Schedule. We agree to provide the insurance in Part E of the policy, subject to the terms, conditions and exclusions as long as:

- the date of occurrence of the insured incident happens during the period of cover and within the territorial limit; and
- any legal proceedings will be dealt with by a court or other body which we agree to in the territorial limit; and
- for civil claims it is always more likely that an insured person will recover damages (or obtain any other legal remedy which we have agreed to) or make a successful defence.

For all insured incidents we will pay costs and expenses to make or defend against an appeal as long as the insured person tells us within the time limits allowed that they want us to appeal. Before we pay any cost and expenses for appeals, we must agree that it is more likely that the appeal will be successful.

If a representative is used, we will pay the costs and expenses incurred for this.

The most we will pay for all claims resulting from one or more event(s) arising at the same time or from the same originating cause is the sum insured shown in your latest Schedule.

Automatic renewal for direct debit customers

If you pay your premium by direct debit, we may automatically renew your policy. We will notify you of our intention to do this before your policy expires and give you details of the renewal terms, including any changes to your policy cover. If you do not wish to renew your policy, you should tell us before the renewal date. If you do not tell us and your policy is renewed, we will continue to make deductions from your bank account for the new premium.
