02 How to make a claim

If you've had an accident

If you're involved in an accident, put your safety first with these 4 steps:

1. Turn off your engine
2. Switch on your hazard lights
3. Get everyone out of the car and to a safe place
4. Call 999 if anyone's injured or the road is blocked

Remember, you and your passengers are more important than your car.

We're aware that not all claims are accidents. If your car has been stolen or damaged please let us know as soon as possible.

It's important that you report anything that happens to your vehicle as soon as it's safe to do so. Usually, the easiest and quickest way to make a claim or to notify us of anything that's happened is by logging into your Account or call 0345 606 1373.

What to do if you're involved in an accident

In brief...

Tell us about any other vehicles involved

Tell us about any other drivers

Don't forget their insurance details

Tell us about any passengers including third party passengers

Was anyone else hurt?

Were there any witnesses?

Take pictures

Did the emergency services attend the scene?

In detail...

Vehicle registration number, make, model – get it all down.

What's their name, where do they live, what's their phone number?

You'll need to swap yours with any other drivers.

Have they been injured? Try to get their name(s) and contact details.

Make notes of their injuries, as best as you can.

Ask for their details too, if possible.

If you've got your phone and it's safe to do so, take photos or videos of the scene and damage

Get the police incident number and the police officer's name

We know it's a lot to ask, especially following the shock of an accident, but please try to gather as much information at the scene as you can.

If your car isn't driveable remember to take out any personal or valuable possessions before you leave it.

And what not to do

Some things you could do without thinking could put you at a disadvantage. So, please don't:

- ✗ Take the blame or admit fault (even if you feel guilty)
- ✗ Offer to pay for any repairs
- ✗ Reply to a third party who contacts you, even if it's a court or a solicitor. It might seem rude, but if you're sent a notice of prosecution, inquest, fatal accident enquiry, court summons or claim form, don't respond. Instead, send it straight to us. We'll manage the communication for you. That's what we're here for. Just get in touch with us by visiting sheilaswheels.com/login, log in to your Account and choose 'Need help?'
- ✗ Admit liability for, or negotiate to settle, any claim without our written permission. We have full discretion in the settlement of your claim or any legal proceedings which may arise and we may take over, defend or settle, or take up the claim in your name for our own benefit. You and anyone covered by the policy must provide all the information, documentation and help we need to do this.

What happens once you've made a claim?

We'll start working on your case as quickly, fairly and seamlessly as possible. We'll probably ask you for some extra information to help us settle your claim. This includes things like:

- Proof of ownership – basically, something to show you own or have a legal interest in the car or whatever it is you're claiming for
- Data from your car – including things like dash cam footage, records from on board computers and other vehicle systems
- Other cover you might have – sometimes other insurers will contribute towards your claim

When we wouldn't cover your claim

We won't pay for damage to your car or injury to the driver if you break the law. For example:

- If the driver of your car was driving while unfit due to drugs or being over the legal drink driving limit
- If the driver of your car is convicted of failure to supply a specimen when legally required to do so

In these circumstances, if we had to pay any claim made by a third party, we could recover those costs from you

- If your car wasn't registered with the UK's Driving and Vehicle Licensing Authority (DVLA) or the registered keeper details were incorrect.
- If we suspect fraud – if you or anyone representing you knowingly gives false information when making a claim, we might not pay the claim

In these situations, we might also:

- ✗ Cancel the policy and any other policies we've provided or treat them as though they never existed
- ✗ Keep any premiums you've paid
- ✗ Take back any money we may have already paid to you
- ✗ Notify the police and/or other authorities

- Death; or
- Permanent loss of sight in one or both eyes, or
- Loss of one or more limbs

We'll pay the injured person or their legal representatives the amount shown in your schedule.

Motor legal advice helpline

Your cover includes access to a motor legal advice helpline. This is 24/7 on 0345 850 9596.

Emergency medical expenses

We'll pay for emergency medical treatment as set out in the Road Traffic Act.

Legal costs

If you or any person has an accident covered by this section, we'll pay:

- ✓ Solicitors' fees to represent that person at a coroner's inquest or fatal injury inquiry, as long as we've agreed to do so beforehand
- ✓ The cost of reasonable legal services, which we'll arrange, to defend that person against:
 - A charge of manslaughter or causing death by careless
 - Dangerous driving
 - Magistrates' court allegations arising out of a collision with a third-party vehicle or pedestrian

We'll only arrange such legal services where it's more likely than not that the defence will be successful.

Such cover is limited to instances where it's in our own interest to make payments for the purpose of defending or representing you and any other person covered by this section.

As the insurer or last known insurer of the car, we may be responsible to pay for any third-party claim that arises. If we've had reason to reject a claim for damage to your car, we may still need to settle the third-party claim. In these circumstances we can recover any of these costs from you directly.

- ✗ Any person already insured with us and claiming personal accident from another policy held with us

Other situations where you aren't covered

In brief

When you're driving a hired car

When your driving licence isn't valid or you're breaking the conditions of your licence

Deliberate or criminal acts by you or a named driver that cause loss, damage, injury or death

When there's other insurance that covers the same liability

In more detail

If you've rented a car and you're required to take out insurance through the hire company.

For example, driving a manual when you only have an 'automatic' licence.

This includes deliberate damage, road rage incidents, and avoiding lawful arrest.

We won't pay where there's other insurance that covers the same liability unless we've agreed to share responsibility for the claim with the other insurer.

A car that's been seized by, or on behalf of, the Government or public authority. This means you can't use the 'driving other cars' extension, or add the car as a temporary additional or substitute vehicle on your policy, to get the vehicle released.

In brief

Deliberate accidents

Deception or Fraud

Deliberate damage

Depreciation

Electrical equipment

Excesses

Legal removal

In detail

If you or a named driver deliberately stage an accident that involves your car, or arrange for someone else to.

Loss or damage to the car, or lost items left in the car as a result of you losing the car by any form of deception or fraud

We won't compensate you for any decrease in the value of your car following a repair covered by your policy.

Any electrical equipment that's not permanently fitted.

How we'll settle your claim for loss or damage

If you use one of our recommended repairers

- ✓ You don't need to get an estimate. Our repairer will see to that and start work as soon as possible
- ✓ The repair work comes with a 5-year guarantee while the parts will be covered by the manufacturer's warranty.
- ✓ Our repairers might use parts that aren't made by your car's manufacturer but are still an equivalent part. We'll pay up to the cost shown in the supplier's UK price list plus any reasonable fitting costs
- ✓ We have recommended repairers across the UK mainland

Courtesy car

- ✓ We'll arrange for one of our suppliers to provide a courtesy car while your car's being repaired by our recommended repairer as part of a valid claim. This is as long as you have a comprehensive policy which remains in force for the duration of repairs. We aim to arrange a courtesy car for you within 2 working days from when your car goes in for repair. If your car's electric and we're unable to arrange an electric courtesy car, we'll pay £50 to cover the additional cost of fuel.
- ✓ These policy terms and conditions apply while using the courtesy car
- ✓ You'll be responsible for the courtesy car, including paying for fuel and any parking fines, motor offences and fixed penalties, and any congestion or toll charges incurred
- ✗ We won't arrange a courtesy car under this section if your car has been stolen and not found, or is considered to be a total loss
- ✗ If we decide that your car is a total loss after providing the courtesy car, we'll withdraw it
- ✗ We won't arrange a courtesy car for windscreen only claims
- ✗ We won't arrange a courtesy car if you suffer an accident or loss when driving outside the UK

If you use a non-recommended repairer

- Send us a detailed estimate from the repairer, plus details of the accident or damage, as soon as possible
- We won't arrange a courtesy car
- We'll pay to have your car fixed only if we've agreed the costs first
- We'll only pay for repairs that were caused by the accident and are reasonable and necessary
- You'll need to pay an additional £200 excess on top of any other excesses
- We can reject an estimate

If your car's not driveable

We'll pay reasonable costs to have it taken to the nearest suitable garage and delivered to your home once fixed. We'll also pay for you and any passengers to be taken to a safe place. If the car can't be fixed, we may put it into safe storage before it's sold or taken for scrap, as at this point the car will belong to us.

New car replacement

We'll replace your car with a new one of the same make and model if:

- Your car's less than a year old; and
- You or your partner were the first registered keeper; and
- It's been stolen and not recovered or the cost of repairing the car is more than 55% of the manufacturer's latest UK list price (including taxes); and
- The legal owner agrees

If we can't find a replacement, we'll give you or the legal owner, either what you paid for it or what it currently costs to buy, whichever is less.

If we decide your car's a total loss

We'll decide that your car is a total loss if it's uneconomical to repair or when it won't be safe to repair it.

We'll pay the legal owner the car's 'market value' (see below) at the time of the loss.

If your car is leased, on contract hire, or bought through a finance agreement, we'll pay the legal owner (which is the finance or leasing company) the outstanding settlement amount, up to the car's market value.

The type of agreement you have with the finance or leasing company will tell us how we make payment. We'll talk you through this at the time, but generally:

- When the car's market value is more than what's owed to the finance or leasing company: we'll pay them the market value of the car and we'll give you any leftover amount.
- When the car's market value is less than what's owed to the finance or leasing company: we'll pay them the market value and you will need to pay the remaining balance.

However, this will depend on the type of agreement you have. We will discuss this with you in detail in due course. Once we settle your claim the car will belong to us. If you'd prefer to keep it, please contact us and we can discuss this with you. We'll look at the salvage category to make sure it's safe for you to keep it and explain the amount we'll take off of your final settlement payment. This is because you'll be buying the car back from us.

You'll still be responsible for any policy excesses applicable to the claim which will be deducted off the final settlement value.

Market value

The 'market value' is the amount your car was worth on the open market at the time of the loss. This is based on research using independent guides such as Glass's Guide, CAPS, Autotrader and Percayso Vehicle Intelligence.

We look at cars of the same make, model and age as yours. We also take into account market conditions and the mileage and condition of your car at the time of the loss, including the cost of repairing any pre-existing damage if applicable. We'll adjust the value if it's been subject to a total loss claim before and if it doesn't have a valid MOT in place.

If there's something you haven't told us about

When settling your claim, we may reduce the amount we pay if we find you haven't told us something you should have when taking out your policy. For example, any modifications to your vehicle, convictions, or significantly higher mileage than declared where your premium would change. We call this a 'proportionality deduction'.

Personalised plate

If you have a personalised number plate and you want to keep it you'll need to contact the DVLA and transfer it onto a DVLA Retention Certificate in your name. You'll have 2 weeks to do this from the date we tell you that the car's a total loss.

What happens with my policy following the settlement of my claim?

You have a couple of options;

- Cancel your policy – you must pay the remaining monthly instalments. We will deduct these monthly until the end of your policy period. Alternatively we may deduct this from your settlement value if you advise us to do so.
- Insure another car on your policy for the remainder of your policy period – we'll tell you of any changes to your premium or the level of cover we'll provide

If you've paid your annual premium upfront, we will not be able to refund you any portion of the premium.

05 Glass damage

Make a claim as soon as you spot a chip and our service provider may be able to fix it rather than replace it. This means you'll pay a smaller excess. The easiest way to make a glass claim is via your Account or by calling our service provider on 0800 032 9082.

What you're covered for

If your windscreen's chipped, cracked or smashed, we'll fix or replace it.

Your cover also extends to your side and rear windows, recalibrating any advanced electronics that relate to the windscreen, and fixing scratches or damage to the bodywork caused by the broken glass.

Claiming for a windscreen doesn't affect your no claims discount.

So, what's not covered?

In brief...

Excesses

In detail...

The amount you must pay towards any claim for loss or damage to your car, or other specified instances of damage or loss. The amounts are shown in your schedule.

Hood or roof structures

We won't pay to replace the hood or roof structure of your convertible or cabriolet car.

Sunroofs and roof panels

We won't pay for the repair or replacement of damaged glass in sunroofs or fixed or moveable glass roof panels.

We may be able to consider a claim for these under section 4 - 'Loss or damage to your car'.

Using your own repairer

If you choose to use your own repairer the most we'll pay towards your claim is £100

What's covered

The maximum we'll pay for legal costs per incident (excluding motor database disputes) is £100,000 (including VAT).

If we decide that you were at fault for the accident, then you won't be covered for the uninsured losses.

If you're unhappy with that decision, our lawyers can provide a second opinion.

Uninsured loss recovery

When you make a claim to recover your uninsured losses, we'll assess the legal merits of progressing the claim based on the facts you've given us and whether there's a reasonable chance of success.

We'll also consider whether it's reasonable to pay your costs under this section. To do this we'll apply 'proportionality', which is an assessment as to whether the cost of pursuing your uninsured loss claim is comparable to the likely benefit that it'll bring.

If you need legal assistance, we'll appoint an authorised representative to deal with your claim before the start of any enquiry or proceedings.

We'll pay legal costs to recover financial losses, such as your excess, travel expenses or loss of earnings, provided:

- You and the insured car are involved in a non-fault or partial non-fault road traffic accident, or
- You are a pedestrian who has been involved in a non-fault road traffic accident which has resulted in your death or injury

So, what's not covered?

In brief

Costs you're ordered to pay by a court

Incidents where you haven't made a claim on your policy

Costs incurred before receiving a notice of prosecution

Disputes between you and us

Payments made to any party pursuing your uninsured loss claim

Costs when there's no reasonable prospect of the claim succeeding

When costs for recovering uninsured losses are unjustified

In detail

Expenses, damages, fines or other penalties you're asked to pay by a criminal court.

If you haven't made a claim for the damage because the cost of the repairs is less than your excess, you can only claim to cover legal support for a database or prosecution incident.

Any legal costs incurred before you were told by the Police or the Crown Prosecution Service that you may be prosecuted for a motoring offence.

Any costs that arise from a dispute between you and us.

Any payment made to any party pursuing your uninsured loss claim as a success fee under the terms of a conditional fee agreement (CFA) or a damages-based agreement (DBA).

Costs for a claim to recover your uninsured losses where there are no reasonable prospects of the claim succeeding or a better outcome being obtained.

Costs for a claim to recover your uninsured losses where we think the costs of continuing legal proceedings outweigh any advantage you might gain.

Hire car – if yours is written off or stolen

If you make a claim and we decide that your car's a total loss, or it's been stolen and not recovered, we'll arrange a hire car by the end of the next working day, for a period of up to 21 days.

You can extend this period at your own expense but at a discounted cost.

You have 14 days from the date we tell you we've decided your car's a total loss to take up the offer of a hire car. Once we've paid you for the total loss, your right to a hire car comes to an end.

You're only covered to drive the hire car in Great Britain and the Isle of Man. If you need to drive the car abroad, please refer to the conditions within this section.

If we're unable to arrange a hire car, we'll pay you up to £100 per day for a contribution towards alternative travel costs up to a maximum limit of £750 per claim.

What isn't covered?

In brief

Costs incurred while running the hire car

Claims not reported within 14 days for your insured car

Rejected claims

In detail

Any costs you incur during the period you have the hire car, such as fuel, parking charges, fines and fees relating to the extended hire car.

Any claim that you don't tell us about within 14 days of you becoming aware of it.

If, after investigation of a total loss or unrecovered theft claim, we decide to reject your claim, the hire car must be returned to our supplier immediately.

- When collecting the hire car from our supplier, all drivers will need to show their full current driving licence and any additional proof of identity that they're asked for
- You may be charged a refundable deposit when you collect the car from our supplier. The deposit will be paid back to you when you return the hire car to our supplier, subject to their terms and conditions.
- Our supplier will provide you with a copy of their terms and conditions that apply for the period you have the hire car. These will apply in addition to your policy terms and conditions, including the exclusions and conditions set out in sections 8 and 9
- For the period you have the hire car, it'll be insured under your policy but only to drive in Great Britain and the Isle of Man. If your policy is lapsed or has been cancelled during the period you have the hire car for, the hire car will no longer be insured, and you must return it to our supplier immediately
- If the hire period is extended by you, you must arrange separate insurance for the hire car unless we agree otherwise
- If you need to take your hire car abroad, you must get permission from the car hire company first, then tell us so we can check we're able to cover your trip and arrange to insure the hire car in full
- Any excess that applies to your policy will also apply to the hire car for any claims made during the period you have the car
- Any payments we make in relation to a claim for damage to the hire car will be made to our supplier
- You must return the hire car to the hire car company no later than 48 hours after the settlement payment is issued to you, or no later than on the 21st day of hire (whichever comes first unless previously agreed)

If you don't comply with these terms, your cover may be invalidated or cancelled, a claim may be refused, or a payment could be reduced. If you're unsure about any of these terms, please contact us.

The other policy terms and conditions, including the exclusions and conditions set out in sections 8 and 9 also apply.

07 Where you're covered to drive

Where your cover applies all year round

Your cover applies in the UK, the Isle of Man and the Channel Islands.

Different cover applies in different countries

You also have the minimum cover you need by law to drive in any country within the Green Card Free Circulation Area. This applies as long as your car is registered in the UK and is not abroad for more than 90 days, in any single policy year.

Please be aware that you'll only have the minimum car insurance required by the countries in the Green Card Free Circulation Area, which is usually equivalent to third-party only cover. So you'll be insured for damage to other people's cars and property but not your own.

What to do if you want to drive in the Green Card Free Circulation Area

If you're driving in any country within the Green Card Free Circulation Area, you'll still require proof (your certificate of motor insurance) that valid third-party insurance cover is in place. You'll also need your driving licence and vehicle log book.

When we'll pay customs duty

If you have to pay customs duty on your car in any of the countries within the Green Card Free Circulation Area because of loss or damage and we decide not to repatriate your car, we'll pay these costs for you.

09 Conditions that relate to your policy

Conditions

There are some conditions applying to your cover that must be met for us to pay any claim.

Please ensure that all the information you have supplied is accurate and up to date. If anything changes, tell us straight away via your Account or by contacting us via live chat. You can log in online at any time to do this.

If you don't, your policy may be invalidated or cancelled, a claim may be refused or a payment could be reduced. If you or anyone acting for you has deliberately or recklessly provided inaccurate information, this can result in immediate cancellation of your policy or voidance, meaning we will treat the policy as if it never existed.

In brief

Make sure you don't provide inaccurate information

in detail

If you or anyone acting for you has deliberately or recklessly provided inaccurate information, we can cancel your policy immediately. We may also keep any premium you've paid and cancel any other policy you have with us.

Get the registration number right

It's essential that the Motor Insurance Database (MID) holds your correct vehicle registration number. If it doesn't, you risk having your car seized by the police. It could also make your policy invalid.

Play your part...

Report accidents and losses immediately

...Protect your cover

As soon as you become aware of an accident, theft, fire or anything else that results in death, injury or loss, you must tell us, even if it looks like there's no damage to your car. This is regardless of whether it may lead to a claim under your policy or not.

Secure your car and its contents

Take reasonable steps to protect and secure your car and contents from loss or damage.

Don't drive your car while under the influence of drink or drugs

If someone driving your car is charged and convicted, there'll be no cover for your car or the driver, and we reserve the right to recover all of the money paid to any third parties from whoever was driving your car.

Take care of your car

Keep it roadworthy, with a valid MOT if required by law, and ensure it's kept secure.

Know the difference between car sharing and making a profit

You're covered for carrying passengers in return for payment which isn't making you a profit; for example, a contribution towards petrol. You're not covered if your car's adapted to carry more than 8 people.

Pay your premium on time

Your cover will become invalid if you don't pay your premium. We'll contact you to ask for payment. If we don't hear from you, we'll give you a final date for payment. After that, if you still haven't paid, we'll cancel your policy.

10 Your no claims discount

Everybody loves a no claims discount (NCD); the reward for claims-free motoring.

Here you'll find out all you need to know about your NCD and how to transfer it easily from your previous insurer to a policy with us.

What you need to do

For most policies, we can confirm your NCD using the NCD database. If we can't, we'll ask you to give us proof such as a renewal invitation or letter from your previous insurer. This must be dated within the last 2 years and must be from a private insurer (not a company car or fleet cover). This also acts as confirmation of the cancellation of your previous policy.

If we do ask, please send the proof to us within 28 days of the start date of your policy, otherwise we'll be forced to cancel it. For more details, check out section 12.

To find out where to send your proof of NCD, chat to us via live chat, which can be accessed via your Account.

What happens to your NCD if a claim is made under your policy?

If we've been unable to recover all our losses in relation to a claim – known as 'non-recoverable' or 'fault claim' – your NCD entitlement will be reduced at renewal as explained in your schedule.

If you allow someone to drive your car when they're not insured to do so under your policy and they are involved in an incident that results in a fault claim, your NCD will be reduced.

These claims won't affect your NCD:

- ✓ Windscreen damage claims which fall under section 5
- ✓ Emergency medical treatment fees paid under section 3
- ✓ Claims where we've been able to recover all of our losses on your behalf – also referred to as a 'recoverable' or 'non-fault' claim
- ✓ Claims where the third party responsible for the damage has been identified and they're not insured
- ✓ Vandalism claims if the incident hasn't been caused by another vehicle, you've reported it to the police and given us a crime reference number (CRN)
- ✓ Claims where you've hit a wild or domestic animal or it's hit your car

What happens if you don't make a claim?

Your NCD will increase by 1 year if you don't make a claim during the policy period, up to a maximum of 20 years.

No claims discount protection

You may be able to add this:

- When you have 4 or more NCD years
- When you buy the policy
- When you receive the renewal invitation

If you'd like to buy NCD protection, go to sheilaswheels.com/login and choose 'Need help?'.

11 Want to change your cover?

We've agreed to issue your policy based on the information you provided, so please make sure your details are always up to date.

We wouldn't want to be in a position where we're forced to cancel your policy or treat your policy as if it never existed, refuse all claims and keep any premium you've paid.

The easiest way to amend your cover is via your Account and clicking 'make a change' or you can contact us via live chat.

Things you need to tell us about include but are not limited to:

- ✓ Change of car
- ✓ Change of drivers
- ✓ Change of address and/or contact details
- ✓ You or any named driver:
 - Becoming aware of any medical or physical condition which may affect your ability to drive
 - Being banned from driving or convicted of any driving offence such as speeding
 - Is charged with, or convicted of, any offence including fraud, arson and dishonesty. We also need to be told of any prosecutions that are pending
 - Is no longer a permanent resident of the UK
- ✓ Any modifications, accessories or customisations to your car
- ✓ Change in how you use your car. For example from private to business

Once we receive notification from you of any change in your details, we may:

- Amend the terms and conditions of your policy
- Adjust your premium
- Refuse to offer policy renewal
- Cancel the policy if the change falls outside our acceptance criteria

We may amend the policy at your next renewal – or in some cases, straight away – but we'll always let you know.

12 Cancelling or renewing your cover

Renewing your cover

When we send your renewal quote, we'll tell you if your policy will renew automatically. We'll also tell you about any changes to your policy and set out our renewal terms and conditions. And we'll explain what you need to do to renew your cover. You can also go to your Account at any time throughout the period of insurance to turn auto renewal off.

If you want to change the way you pay your premiums, or you've decided not to renew your cover, please go to your Account at least 5 days before your policy is due to renew, or contact us via live chat. If you don't, we might have already applied to your bank for payment of your premium.

As paying by Direct Debit is a lending decision, a hard credit search will be performed at renewal and will remain on your credit report for 12 months. This allows us to report your monthly payment history to our credit reference agency and it'll appear as 'insurance' on your credit report. A hard credit search won't be applied if the policy is paid upfront in full.

Important points to consider before cancelling

- Your policy can only be cancelled from the date you contact us or any later date that you ask, unless you can provide us with proof that you sold the car on a certain date or the car's been written off or stolen
- When you cancel your policy, all cover provided by the optional extras will automatically be cancelled at the same time
- You must still pay the premium due, up to the date of cancellation and you'll be charged a fee by esure

- If you or we cancel your policy and any optional extras, you won't be covered for any accident or incident that occurs after cancellation
- If you cancel your Direct Debit this doesn't mean that you've cancelled your policy

What it will cost when you cancel your policy

- You have 14 days from the date you receive your policy or the start date of your policy, whichever is the later, to cancel your policy. If you cancel within this 14-day period, you'll receive a refund of the premium paid less a fee payable to esure (unless this is after a renewal)
- If you cancel before the date your policy starts, you'll receive a full refund and no fee will be charged
- If you cancel your policy after 14 days have passed, we'll refund that part of your premium not yet used less a fee payable to esure, or charge you for any outstanding payment that may be due and the fee payable to esure
- You'll receive a refund of any optional extras purchased, minus a pro-rata charge for the time on cover, subject to there being no claims
- We won't refund your premium if a fault claim has been made against your policy within the current period of cover or the claim remains open. In this situation, we'll cancel your policy but your full annual premium will remain due, plus the fee payable to esure. If you pay by credit instalments, you must still pay the balance of the full annual premium and the fee payable to esure

Our right to cancel your policy

We have the right to cancel your policy at any time by giving you 7 days' notice in writing where there is a valid reason for doing so. We'll send our cancellation notice to the latest contact details we have for you and will set out the reason for cancellation. Valid reasons may include, but are not limited to:

- Where we've been unable to collect a payment (premium or Direct Debit instalment), we'll write to you requesting payment by a specific date. If we don't receive payment by this date, we'll write to you again to tell you that payment hasn't been received and giving you 7 days' notice of a final date for payment. We'll also tell you that if payment isn't received by this final date, your policy will be cancelled. If payment isn't received by that final date, we'll cancel your policy with immediate effect and tell you in writing that such cancellation has taken place. Your credit agreement may also be cancelled. We may also refer your details to a debt collection agency and your credit rating may be impacted
- Where you're required in accordance with the terms and conditions of this policy to co-operate with us, or send us information or documentation, and you fail to do so in a way that materially affects our ability to process a claim, or our ability to defend our interests. In this case, we may issue a cancellation letter and we'll cancel your policy if you fail to co-operate with us or provide the required information or documentation by the end of the 7-day cancellation notice period
- Where we don't receive evidence of your no claims discount (NCD) within 28 days from the start date of your policy. If we haven't received such evidence by the end of the 21-day period, we'll issue a cancellation letter and we'll cancel your policy if we don't receive evidence of your NCD by the end of the 7-day cancellation notice period
- Where there's a material failure by you to take care of your car as required by the paragraph headed 'Take care of your car' in section 9
- Where we identify serious grounds, such as the use of or threat of violence or aggressive or abusive behaviour, intimidation or bullying towards our staff, agents, suppliers or our property

If we cancel your policy and you've made a claim or been involved in an incident, you'll still have to pay the full premium plus the fee charged by esure. If you haven't made a claim or been involved in an incident, you'll have to pay the premium for the period of cover you've used plus the fee charged by esure. In some cases, this will result in you receiving a refund of the part of your premium you haven't yet used less any fee that applies. The current fees are shown in Your Agreement with esure Services Limited.

If we cancel your car insurance at any time, we'll automatically cancel any cover provided by the optional extras. The premium you paid for these optional extras will be refunded less a pro rata charge for the time you've been on cover, unless you've made a claim.

Immediate cancellation

We also have the right to cancel your policy immediately where we have reasonable grounds to believe you or anyone acting for you has deliberately or recklessly provided inaccurate information or acted fraudulently. We may keep any premium you've paid. We may also cancel any other policy you have with us. Please see the paragraph headed 'Always provide accurate information' in section 9.

Remember, cancelling your Direct Debit doesn't mean you've cancelled your policy.

What to think about before you cancel

You'll need to have other cover in place unless you've sold your car, declared it off-road or no longer have the car in your possession.

13 If you want to complain

Our complaints procedure

We always aim to get things right first time for our customers but we know that sometimes you might feel this hasn't happened. If that's the case, we want to hear about it, so we have an opportunity to put things right for you.

If you do have a complaint, please follow these steps.

Step One

Visit sheilaswheels.com/login and choose 'Need help?'. Type in 'Complaint' and you'll be connected to one of our specialists on live chat.

If it's about a claim, then you can call us on 0345 603 7970.

We'll make every effort to sort things out for you within 3 working days. Once we've resolved your complaint, we'll send you an email or letter (called a Summary Resolution Communication) just to confirm you're happy with what's been agreed. This will also tell you about the next steps in our complaints procedure and how the Financial Ombudsman Service can help, should you need to take it further.

Step Two

When we can't resolve a complaint quickly, or you're not happy with the initial resolution, our Customer Relations team can help. This is a dedicated team who act with the full authority of our Chief Executive, and they'll carry out an independent review for you.

We'll let you know who's managing your complaint and how long you can expect to wait for a decision. We'll write to you with our verdict (final decision letter) within 8 weeks from the date you first complained.

Email CustomerRelationsExec@esure.com Or write to Customer Relations Department, esure, The Equinox, 19 Cadogan Street, G2 6QQ.

Step Three

If you're still unhappy following Step One or Step Two, or you haven't received a final decision letter within 8 weeks, you can approach the Financial Ombudsman Service (FOS). This is an independent body that's been set up to resolve disputes between customers and financial companies, including insurers.

You have the right to refer your complaint to the FOS free of charge, but you must do so within 6 months of the date of the final decision letter. If you don't refer your complaint in time, the Ombudsman won't have our permission to consider your complaint and so will only be able to do so in very limited circumstances. For example, if the Ombudsman believes that the delay was as a result of exceptional circumstances.

The FOS' website has a great deal of useful information:
financial-ombudsman.org.uk

You can contact them on:

Tel: 0300 1239 123 or 0800 0234 567

Email: complaint.info@financial-ombudsman.org.uk

Address: The Financial Ombudsman Service, Exchange Tower, Harbour Exchange Square, London, E14 9SR.

Autonomous vehicle: A car listed on the list of automated vehicles prepared and kept by the Secretary of State in accordance with the Automated and Electric Vehicles Act 2018.

Certificate of insurance: The document that proves you have taken out the insurance you must have by law.

Courtesy car: A car provided to you for the duration of your repairs, the cost of which will be settled by us as part of your claim. This will usually be a Class A car such as a Nissan Micra or Toyota Aygo.

Credit search: We conduct two types of search on your credit file. One's done when you get a quote and the other when you buy or renew a policy and pay by instalments. Insurance Quotation Searches (Soft Search) take place when you've got a quote from us for insurance, or if your policy's due to renew in the next 60 days. This will leave a search footprint, which is a record left by the Credit Reference Agency every time your credit report is searched. This will remain on your credit report for 12 months and will appear as Insurance Quotation. A hard credit search takes place when you buy or renew an insurance policy with us and pay by instalments, so we have to make a lending decision. This remains on your credit report for 12 months and will appear as Insurance. A hard credit search won't be performed if the policy is paid upfront in full.

cyber event – intentional deletion, corruption, unauthorized access to, or theft of data; or hacking or denial of service attack
